JULY 5 - 6 2014
DENMARK

1st January 2014

INVITATION

We hereby officially announce that next years IWT will be held in Denmark on Saturday the 5th and Sunday the 6th of July.

The ground is located just south of the city Skive in the northwest of Jutland.

We are all finished in the process of inviting the judges and their names will be announced in the beginning of 2014.

Maximum 36 teams on IWT

To ensure that we have enough time to set up good and challenging exercises for the teams, we have a limit of 36 teams entries.

Each team consists of 3 handlers and their dogs. Open only to retriever breeds.

We invite each country to participate with 3 national teams. In case the maximum number of 36 teams are not reached, the remaining number of openings will be offered to the participating countries to enter a fourth national team.

Last years winning team are invited to defend their position.

We very much hope to expand the number of countries participating in the IWT, therefore this invitation was also sent to England to The Kennel Club, Kennel Club's Gundog Working Test Working Party, chairman Anne Heading.

In addition we certainly hope to see teams from continental countries, who are new to this great sport.

The website will be open at the beginning of 2014 and a Facebook site about the event will be established.

National teams

We would like the participating countries to accept this schedule for entering their national teams:

1 may – is the last date for the national clubs to enter their number of teams – and please inform us if the national club would like one more team than 3 national teams in the competition.

6 june – is the last date, where we will ask the national clubs to register their teams: names of dogs and handlers on the teams – incl. reserve dog.
